

Mary-Pat

A Conversation With
MARY PAT HECTOR

12-Year-Old Activist,
Playwright, and Author of

*Easy Street
Ain't So Easy*

Join Dr. Carla Stokes, Scholar-Activist and Founder of Helping Our Teen Girls In Real Life Situations, Inc. (HOTGIRLS)[®] and the Sisters Inspiring Sisters to Action (SISTA)[™] peer leaders for a conversation with Mary Pat Hector as she shares insight into her newly published novel, Easy Street Ain't So Easy and her work as the Founder and National President of Youth In Action. We will discuss critical issues facing today's youth including drug and alcohol use, violence, child abuse, peer pressure, sexual activity, and self-mutilation/cutting.

Wednesday, November 10, 2010

6:30-8:00 PM

Spelman College

350 SPELMAN LANE, SW ATLANTA, GA 30310

Science Center Auditorium (Room 134)

Find out why Dr. Carla and others are calling Easy Street Ain't So Easy a "must read" for pre-teens, teens, youth advocates, and concerned adults!

Dr. Carla

HOTGIRLS is a youth-driven nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the health and lives of young women and girls through health education, media literacy, and leadership development programs.

Buy It Now at <http://tinyurl.com/easystreetaintsoeasy>

www.facebook.com/MaryPatHector

www.drcarla.com | www.helpingourteengirls.org

